CARD OF THANKS.—God in His wisdom and mercy has deemed it best to take from us our dear loved one—wife and mother. May God bless and comfort those who so nobly responded to our aid in that dark hour of grief, and to you we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks. Respectfully, F. Ingram and family.

A WELL EARNED GIFT.—Louis Landram, editor of the Central Record, of Lancaster, has just received the gift of a handsome silver berry bowl on which is inscribed the following: "From the Kentucky Press Association, to President Louis Landram, 1904-1905."

On an attached card is the sentence, "With best love and good wishes of the Kentucky Press Association, to its retiring president, S. W. Menefee, Morris Bartlett, E. A. Gullion, committee."

The Lincoln County Medical Society will meet at Dripping Springs Thursday, Aug. 10, 1905, at 10 o'clock A. M. Dr. W. J. Edmiston, Crab Orchard, essayist, subject, "Enteritis, Aetiology, Pathology and Treatment;" Dr. E. J. Brown Voluntary; Dr. J. G. Carpenter, "Prompt, Skillful, Life-Saving Surgery vs. Delays, Ignorance and Neglect;" Dr. J. T. Wesley, "Up-to-Date Lying in State;" Dr. T. P. Caldwell, London, "My Way of Treating Typhoid Fever;" Dr. J. W. Acton, Kingsville, "My Experience with Small-Pox and the Laity; to Itch or Not to Itch." Doctor, now is the time to try the Dripping Springs water. Bring your patients. Dr. Bertie Carpenter, Sec'y. Pro Tem.

In Judge J. P. Bailey's court Wednesday C. D. Evans was fined $50, Dr. C. M. Thompson had a hung jury and M. D. Smith was acquitted. These gentlemen are trustees of the Kingsville public school and the two former advised the teacher to continue the school after Judge Bailey and Superintendent Singleton had ordered it closed on account of small-pox in that section. Mr. Smith was opposed to a continuance of the school under the circumstances and so told the teacher, but he doubtless believed in a majority ruling and kept on teaching. Mr. Evans will appeal his case and Dr. Thompson will have another trial Saturday week. The doctor says the disease in the Singleton family is not small-pox, but Dr. Acton and Dr. O'Bannon both pronounce it the genuine article.
